It's just that the ceremony doesn't change much in the end.

Of course not.

The Little Theater of KnoKiss

~ Behind the scenes ~

End credits for the early spring

And I was so happy to apply for university along with you!

Do you know how much time I waited for you in front of the exam center!

Die, you liar!

It's like

Did you know I was a graduate of the same school as you?

Which means you decided me from the start? You're the worst!

But I don't have the leisure to take an exam where I have zero chance of success.

And I said

Did you know I was a graduate of the same school as you?

You'll be disappointed

Come on, don't say that.

It's like

Did you know I was a graduate of the same school as you?

Good

I don't want to graduate

You're not a child anymore
